One of the premiere leagues in the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision, the Southland Conference continues to emerge as a breeding ground for the future stars of the National Football League. From groundbreaking players such as Pro Football Hall of Famer Fred Dean to the league's newest crop of first-year hopefuls, the conference boasts a rich tradition of sending impact players to the NFL.

For each of the Southland's NFL-bound alumni, professional success starts in the classrooms and on the gridirons of the league's eight active competing universities, including four programs that this fall will see a combined five rookies make their first attempts at finding a spot on an NFL roster.

Included among those five rookies is Central Arkansas defensive end Larry Hart, who was drafted by the Jacksonville Jaguars in the fifth round of the 2010 NFL Draft. The four others – Nicholls receiver Antonio Robinson (Chicago Bears), Northwestern State linebacker Isaiah Greenhouse (Houston Texans), Stephen F. Austin linebacker Tim Knicky (Green Bay Packers) and receiver Contrevious Parks (Detroit Lions) – signed free agent contracts.

A total of 22 former Southland Conference players appeared on NFL rosters as of July 1, 2010. The Southland is one of three FCS conferences with at least 200 selections (202) in the NFL draft, behind the Ivy League (242) and Big Sky (214). The league also ranks third in the subdivision with 22 players taken in the draft since 2000, behind the Big Sky (25) and the Colonial (23).

The Southland Conference led all FCS conferences with four selections in the 2009 draft and sent 11 players into preseason camps last summer. Only in 2002, when five players were among the more than 250 selections, were more Southland alumni drafted in the same season this decade.

Former Northwestern State cornerback Terrance McGee is the conference's longest-tenured alumni in the NFL. McGee has completed eight seasons in the NFL, all with the Buffalo Bills. He is one of three active Southland stars heading into the 2010 campaign with at least five years of NFL experience. Former McNeese State fullback Luke Lawton, who is with the Oakland Raiders, just completed his fifth season, as did former Texas State defensive Tackle Fred Evans, who is with the Minnesota Vikings.

McGee, an All-American kick returner during his tenure with the Demons, is one of nine players from the Southland Conference to have taken part in the Pro Bowl. He was selected to the AFC squad as the league's special teams' representative in 2005. Only Stephen F. Austin alumnus Jeremiah Trotter has played in the Pro Bowl more recently than McGee.

The Lumberjacks' former pass-rushing star retired in 2007 having taken part in four Pro Bowls as a representative of the Philadelphia Eagles, the last of which came in 2006. Former Arkansas State star Bill Bergey, who played in a combined five Pro Bowls, including one with the Cincinnati Bengals, also represented the Eagles in four Pro Bowls.

The conference's other four-time Pro Bowler is Fred Dean, arguably the most successful professional football player in the history of the Southland Conference. Dean, a four-time Pro Bowler, was a two-time Southland Defensive Player of the Year and a first-team all-Southland selection all four years of his career at Louisiana Tech. He is one of only five Southland players to earn that distinction. In all, Dean played for 11 seasons in the NFL, recording 93 sacks in 141 games for the San Diego Chargers and San Francisco 49ers. He twice hoisted the Vince Lombardi Trophy as a Super Bowl Champion alongside Joe Montana and in 2009 became the first Southland football player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

Like Dean, former Texas State standout Ricky Sanders won a pair of Super Bowl rings with the Washington Redskins during his seven-year career. The owner of multiple Super Bowl records, including most receiving yards (193), most total yards (235), most touchdowns in one quarter (two), most receiving yards in one quarter (168), and the longest touchdown reception (80, tie), Sanders joins Dean and 13 other former Southland players as members of at least one Super Bowl championship roster.

More former NFL stars from the Southland include Stan Humphries, Fred Barnett, Roger Carr, Marvin Upshaw, Mike Barber, Bruce Collie, Tim McKyer, Pat Tilley, Jackie Harris, Eugene Seale, Bubby Brister, Leonard Smith, Billy Ryckman, Rafael Septien, Buford Jordan and Ray Brown, among many others.
